

MARKETING SERVICES

Face to face events

A lasting impression & greater customer relationships

From smaller, highly targeted round tables through to larger, industry-leading conferences and awards, our face to face events offer you unrivalled access to thousands of industry professionals through sponsorship and speaking opportunities, giving you the chance to showcase your expertise in front of your customers and prospects and place your brand as a market leader.

Our events allow you to:

Engage potential and existing clients with thought leadership in an effective manner through speaking and exhibiting at one of our conferences.

Place your brand as a market leader in front of hundreds of industry professionals with sponsorship at one of our sophisticated, champagne fuelled awards nights.

Network and build relationships with targeted fund selectors, financial planners and investment specialists.

Talk to and engage with highly targeted handpicked senior decision makers as an exclusive sponsor of a roundtable.
